

9560 Spruill Rd. Johns Creek, GA 30022

To register for programs, please email your child's name and age and your phone number to:

Laura.hoefener@fultoncountyga.gov or call (770)360-8820

To stay up to date on happenings at the NESO Library, like us on Facebook:

www.facebook.com/northfultonkids

Summer Reading Kick-Off: Magic and More!

Thursday, June 1 at 1:00 p.m.

It's time to Build a Better World! Come join the Northeast/ Spruill Oaks Library for a spectacular kick-off to summer reading with face painting, balloon animals, and an unforgettable magic show with magician and ventriloquist Keith Karnok. The magic show starts at 2:00, but come early starting at 1:00 to enjoy face painting and balloon art. All ages are welcome! No registration required.

Chess Club for Children

Mondays, June 5-June 26 at 6:15 p.m.

With the help of an experienced chess coach, the Chess Club at Northeast/ Spruill Oaks Library is a casual environment for children with experience playing chess to play against one-another, share strategies, and have a great time! In the Community Room. Ages 6-11. Registration required. There will be no Chess on June 19th due to voting in the meeting room.

Big Bad Bullysauros: a Musical

Tuesday, June 13 at 10:30am

Children will laugh and sing along with Roxy Rex and Natalie as they travel back in time to Dinosorri Elementary and learn an important lesson about friendship and forgiveness along the way. Presented by A Company of Friends, this musical theatre production promises to be full of humor, original songs, and an inspirational story. All ages. In the center of the library. No registration required.

Recycling with Autrey Mill Nature Preserve

Tuesday, June 13 at 1:00pm

Children will learn how they can build a better world through recycling. At the end of the program, participants will have the opportunity to make "seed bombs" to plant in their gardens at home. Ages 7-11. Limit 20. Registration required.

Baby and Toddler Storytime

Wednesdays, June 14 and 28 at 10:30am

Children will learn, explore, and play through interactive stories, songs and crafts. In the Community Room. Ages 4 and under. Registration required.

Mumferd Learns to Exercise: Puppet Show

Thursday, June 15 at 10:30am

With the help of Mumferd the puppet, Kaiser Permanente Educational Theatre will teach kids how they can stay healthy and strong through exercise. In the Center of the Library. Ages 4-8. No registration required.

Yoga for Children

Fridays, June 16, 23, and 30 at 12:30 pm.

Yoga instructor Stefany Gregg will teach children the basics of yoga. Yoga helps improve all aspects of a child's physical and mental well-being, including self-esteem, concentration, and flexibility. Yoga mats will be provided. In the Community Room. Ages 7-11. Limit 20. Registration required.

Storytelling with Babatunde

Wednesday, June 21 at 10:30 am

African "Freestyle" Storyteller, Babatunde' presents stories based on a young boy named Kweku and characters found in traditional African tales. With only a drum and his imagination, Babtunde creates an awe inspiring experience that will not be forgotten. In the Community Room. Ages 12 and under. No registration required.

Planting an Herb Garden with the UGA Extension

Wednesday, June 21 at 1:00 p.m.

Children will learn how to build a better garden during this fun hands-on class presented by the UGA Extension Program. The class will teach children how to identify common herbs and how they can create their own herb garden at home. Ages 8-11. In the Habitat Garden outside the library, weather permitting. Limit 20. Registration required.

Small, Small World: Art around the Globe

Thursday, June 22 at 10:30am

During each 40 minute session, participants will journey to far-off locales where they learn about children around the world through music, movement, art, and literature. This program is presented by the Johns Creek Arts Center. In the Community Room. Ages 2-4. Limit 20. Registration required.

Books and Butter

Thursday, June 22 at 1:00 p.m.

Through this dynamic and fun educational program, children will learn where their dairy comes from through an interactive video and will have the opportunity to make their own butter. Ages 6-11. Limit 20. Registration required.

Dollars and Sense: Finance for Children

Wednesday, June 28 at 1:00.

Children will learn the basics of what money is and how it works with the UGA Extension Program. In the Community Room. Ages 7-11. Limit 30. Registration required.

Programs for Children- July, 2017
Northeast/ Spruill Oaks Library

9560 Spruill Rd. Johns Creek, GA 30022

To register for programs, please email your child's name and age and your phone number to:

Laura.hoefener@fultoncountygga.gov or call (770)360-8820

To stay up to date on happenings at the NESO Library, like us on Facebook:

www.facebook.com/northfultonkids

Chess Club for Children

Mondays, July 3-31 at 6:15 pm.

With the help of an experienced chess coach, the Chess Club at Northeast/ Spruill Oaks Library is a casual environment for children with experience playing chess to play against one-another, share strategies, and have a great time! In the Community Room. Ages 6-11. Registration required.

Ken Scott Magic Show

Thursday, July 6 at 10:30a.m.

Guaranteed to be an unforgettable family event, Ken Scott's amazing magic tricks will captivate children of all ages! In the center of the library. All ages.

Fox in a Box: Travelling Theatre Exhibit

Tuesday, July 11 at 2:00 and 3:00 p.m.

The fabulous Fox Theatre comes to the library! Children will have the opportunity to learn about the history of this historic Atlanta landmark through an interactive exhibit and presentation. This program will have two sessions: 2:00-2:55pm and 3:00-4:00pm. Ages 7-11. Registration required.

Baby and Toddler Storytime

Wednesdays, July 12 and 26 at 10:30am

Children will learn, explore, and play through interactive stories, songs and crafts. In the Community Room. Ages 4 and under. Registration required.

Shake, Rattle, and Roll! Preschool Music Class with Scott Douglas

Thursday, July 13 at 11:00a.m.

Children experience the joy of music during this hour long program as they sing, clap and play instruments from around the globe with musician Scott Douglas. In the Community Room. Ages 3-8. Registration required.

Top Story Builders with Barry Stewart Mann

Friday, July 14 at 10:30am

Join storyteller Barry Stewart Mann on a journey to build the foundation of a better world through literacy. From sturdy frames to fine details, these tales will be filled with puppets, props, costumes, songs and audience participation. In the center of the library. Ages 3-10.

Chemistry: States of Matter with GSU Bio-Bus

Tuesday, July 18 at 2:00 pm

Children will learn about chemistry through fun, hands-on experiments with the GSU bio-Bus. In the Meeting Room. Ages 7-12. Limit 20. Registration required.

Paint a Seascape with Out of the Box Art Studio

Wednesday, July 19 at 12:00 p.m.

Make a splash with Out of the Box Art Studio! Children will learn creative painting techniques to paint their own beautiful seascapes on canvas during the 90-minute workshop.

Small, Small World: Exploring Art through Reading

Thursday, July 20 at 10:30am

During each 40 minute session, participants will journey to far-off locales where they learn about children around the world through music, movement, art, and literature. This program is presented by the Johns Creek Arts Center. In the Community Room. Ages 2-4. Limit 20. Registration required.

Yoga for Children

Fridays, July 21 and 28 at 12:30 pm.

Yoga instructor Stefany Gregg will teach children the basics of yoga. Yoga helps improve all aspects of a child's physical and mental well-being, including self-esteem, concentration, and flexibility. Yoga mats will be provided. In the Community Room. Ages 7-11. Limit 20. Registration required.

Imagination Station: Puppet Show

Thursday, July 27 at 10:30 am

Get ready to build your imagination with Piccadilly Puppets! This playful variety show uses puppets, music, storytelling, and lots of audience participation to encourage children to use their imagination.

